

VOTER OUTREACH CONTEST WINNERS

As a part of Citizens Voter Registration Awareness Month, the Stanly County Board of Elections sponsored a Voter Outreach Contest. This contest was open to all Stanly County school-age students grades K through 12. Participation was voluntary and all submitted entries are currently being used as part of a Voter Awareness Display at the Stanly Commons during the month of October 2010.

Five schools including Badin Elementary, Central Elementary, East Albemarle Elementary, Millingport Elementary, and Oakboro Elementary submitted entries from thirty-eight different classes for a total of five hundred forty entries.

The Stanly County Board of Elections would like to thank all of the principals and teachers who encouraged their students to participate in this contest and is happy to announce the following winners:
